Six players showed up for the final, double point, week of the second half. With the amount of points available, this was a very open contest. Three of the four contenders crumbled beneath the might of Jane. Jane shot her second lowest round of the year, a modified 62 (-4) to claim the week and the second half crown.

Now, we have some business to settle. This week we have a battle of the Sileos. Dave "the Cannon" Sileo vs. Jane "the Sniper" Sileo. Rumor has it that Jane's rifle shoots right but will Dave have the cannon BALLS to finish the battle?

The format will be handicapped match play. Being that Dave's handicap is 15 lower than Jane's, he will be spotting her one shot on each hole except for the three easiest holes decided by average score for the past eight weeks. These holes are #7, #12, and #15. Good luck to both of you!
